

Rad Tech Enrollment Checklist

- CUKC University application deadline
- Submit official college transcripts
- Submit official high school transcripts
(If you have less than 24 total college hours)
- Submit ACT/SAT score
(If you have less than 24 total college hours)
- Submit AAS program packet
- CUKC AAS program application deadline
- Complete the CUKC entrance exam
- Register with the University's document management system
- Submit health and immunizations records
- Submit valid American Heart Association CPR certification
- Complete the interview questionnaire
- Schedule and complete interview & information session with the program director
- Complete physical exam and submit results
- Program Director notifies applicants of acceptance or other status by postal mail
- Complete background check and submit results
- $200 tuition deposit paid within 14 days
- Complete drug screen and submit results
- Complete physical examination and submit results
- Register with the Missouri DHSS Family Care Safety Registry
- Classes begin

Guaranteed Admission

Students who complete all of the required prerequisite coursework at CUKC will be granted guaranteed admission to the Radiologic Technology program provided that all criteria for AASRT program admission are met, and all other additional considerations are satisfactory.

QUESTIONS? Talk to an Admissions Advisor at 800.467.2252 or admissions@cleveland.edu.